4. Quotations and Additional Costs

Transportation, clearing, storage and towing rates issued by the carrier to the consignor is generally governed under current scale of wages, railway or shipping rates and subject to annual review in line with operational and administration cost increases. Unless specified to the contrary in writing, quotations exclude customs duties, taxes, final clearing charges, towing and fines.

5. Increase of Quotations

- 5.1 In the event of the carrier being obliged to incur reasonable additional costs in the execution of its obligation in that it has to purchase and / or hire additional services, equipment or materials, including licenses or permits, to enable the carrier to deliver a consignment, with or without prior notification to the consignor, then in such event the consignor agrees that it will be liable for such additional costs not initially quoted on and which amounts will be invoiced to the consignor along with the initially quoted charge. The Carrier will be entitled to recover the additional charges incurred in this matter.
- 5.2 The Carrier will furthermore be entitled to increase the remuneration specified in the quotation in the event of the consignor altering the quantity of the consignment to be carried in proportion to such increase / or decrease.
- 5.3 In the event of the Carrier being obliged to deviate from the route selected by it, or to carry the consignment over another route, for any reason necessitating such detour, including but not limited to the following: adverse weather conditions, impassable or dangerous roads, bridges, pontoons and ferries, the carrier will be entitled to charge an additional sum over and above the quoted amount as a result of extra distance travelled including but not limited to tolls, liability cover or charges levied by lawful authorities.
- 5.4 The consignor or consignee will be liable for storage charges and/or fines incurred by the carrier or its agent in respect of the safekeeping of the consignment at any border post or other area nominated by the Carrier which amount will be payable upon collection / delivery of the consignment against the Carrier's invoice.

6. Payment of Carrier's Remuneration

Unless specially agreed upon between the parties, the Carrier's remuneration will be payable in accordance with terms as set out by the Carrier's Financial Controller at the time of the movement.

7. Carrier's Lien

- 7.1 The Carrier shall have a lien over all consignments carried and in the event of non-payment of any portion of monies due by the consignor to the carrier determined by the Financial Controller. The Carrier's lien shall come in existence as soon as the carrier takes possession and control of the consignor's goods and the lien will persist until all amounts owing to the Carrier from time to time have been paid in full, whether or not the costs relate to the goods in the Carrier's possession at the time. It is specifically agreed that all goods in the Carrier's possession shall serve as security for payment of all and any amounts that may owe by the consignor to the Carrier. The Carrier's lien shall further endure until such a time that all amounts have been paid and the lien shall not lapse as a result of delivery of any goods to a consignee. The Carrier shall be entitled to retrieve the goods from a consignee in the event of the consignor defaulting on any payment obligations to the Carrier.
- 7.2 If the consignor does not affect payment of any amounts owing to the Carrier, the Carrier shall in addition to its lien, specified in clause 7.1 above, be entitled to charge the consignor storage in respect of all goods in the Carrier's possession, forming part of the Carrier's lien, which storage charges shall be market related and be calculated on a day to day basis.

8. Release of Obligations

In the event that the Carrier is unaware of the delivery address of the consignee or the address on the application is not correct, the Carrier will be released from all liability whatsoever in respect of the consignment.
