

OneLogix Share Trade Policy

The company has a formal policy restricting share dealing by directors and other staff who have access to price-sensitive information

Trade in OneLogix shares is prohibited during 'closed periods', as defined by the JSE, prior to the announcement of interim and annual results, or while the company is trading under cautionary

Directors are required to report their share dealings to the Chairperson, who, with the company secretary and sponsor, ensures that announcements are published on SENS